	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 5	During the year ended December 31, 2011, the Fund became aware that an employee who was the Organization's Operation's Manager made several unauthorized payroll distributions to himself which were directly deposited into his bank account. This same employee also used the Fund's credit card for personal expenses, including a charge for the benefit of another organization. This significant diversion of assets was discovered during the annual audit of financial statements. The employee continued the unauthorized payroll distributions into 2012 until his termination in April 2012 immediately following the discovery of the theft.
